

Project MATCH

Making Appropriate & Timely Connections for Children

Did you know?

- More than half of Edmonson County children in foster care have brothers and sisters.
- Nearly 65 percent of those children are separated from their siblings.
- About 75 percent of Edmonson County children in foster care are placed outside of the area.

For more information
on foster care and adoption call:

1-877-994-9970

www.project-match.org

Help change the lives of Edmonson County children... become a foster/adoptive parent!

A collaborative project with the Department for Community Based Services, Murray State University, the University of Kentucky, Western Kentucky University and the University of Louisville

“Growing Connections”

Funded through a Cooperative Agreement with the Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Children's Bureau, Grant # 90CO1040

